If the Republicans win they will be guilty of base ingratitude if they do not present medals to Secretaries Baker and Daniels.

Mr. George W. Perkins puts the issue concisely in six words: "Can Wilson get away with it?" That is, can he fool most of the people some of the time.

Turkeys are likely to sell for forty cents a pound around Thanksgiving time, so says the newspapers. You can't compromise on chickens, either, because chickens will also take a jump. But, be thankful, the "fixin's" show only slight increase.

On the first page of this paper is published the Democratic county ticket. The Democrats of the county show enterprise in advertising their ticket and while we do not advocate its election, we do commend them for the spirit of enterprise they show. The ticket is made up of good men, but their politics do not represent those things which are for the best interest of the county and state and the nation.

Death of Mrs. Joseph Foss

Mrs. Foss, widow of the late Joseph Foss, died at her home in North Hyde Park, early in the morning of Friday, October 20th. Her death resulted from illness extending over several weeks. She had been for several years in failing health and the illness to which allusion has been made in a recent issue the result of blood poisoning contracted from a burn upon the hand, proved fatal. The recent death of her husband had been a very severe blow, depleting her powers of resistance to illness.

Diantha (Bailey) Foss was the daughter of Jonathan and Amanda (McClure) Bailey who, in her childhood, were residents of Jericho. She was born April 27, 1843. They afterwards lived and she spent her early youth in Johnson, near the village of North Hyde Park. She was married to Robert Hazard of Ferrisburg. To this marriage was born one son, Frank S. Hazard, now and for many years a resident of North Hyde Park.

Mr. Robert Hazard lost his life in a railroad accident at North Ferrisburg in April 1867. Ten years later, Jan. 7, 1877 his widow was married to Mr. Foss who has very recently died.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Foss has been in North Hyde Park and they have been widely known for their strong influence for good in the community. Both have been very thoroughly identified with the Congregational Church and Sunday School. Mrs. Foss, through all the years of her residence in the village has been very active in this work and has also had an important part in that of the W. C. T. U., the W. R. C., and other organizations. Mr. and Mrs. Foss leave one son, Cortez L. Foss, now residing in North Hyde Park and two grandchildren the daughter and the son of the latter. Grandchildren of Mr. Foss by a previous marriage are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kneeland of Johnson, the latter being a daughter of Mr. Foss.

Near relatives of Mrs. Foss in this vicinity are her nephews, Irving Bailey of Johnson and Leon B. Bailey of North Hyde Park.

The funeral service was held on Sunday, October 22nd, in the Congregational church just seven weeks after that for Mr. Foss, and in the same place. Services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Bowman, recently a pastor of this church, now of New Ipswich, N. H. There were appropriate ritual services by members of the W. R. C., and the singing of selections by a quartette.

Committal services were held in the family lot at North Hyde Park Cemetery. "Beautiful and pleasant in their lives; in their deaths they were not divided." B.

would take the Scouts to Smuggler's Notch for a days trip on Saturday, if the weather was good. On Saturday nineteen Scouts, Scout-Master and Asst. Scout-Master met at the place and time appointed and went by auto to Smuggler's Notch. On the way up we visited Bingham's Falls.

The autos were driven to the Spring where they were left. A fire was built in an arch and a large pile of coffee was made. After dinner we went on a hike to the Caves, and down as far as Dead Horse Hill. On the way to the caves the Scout-Master pointed out the different profiles including the Man of the North, the Elephant's Head, and many others.

After the Caves had been visited we returned to the autos. On the return trip we went over to the Moss Glen Falls, which are very beautiful. Everyone seemed to enjoy the trip, and some said—why go away to see scenery, when we have it here? See Vermont first.

How to Wrap Papers for Mailing.

In using a homemade paper wrapper for mailing purposes cut a triangular section from each end of it before applying the paste or mucilage, says the Popular Mechanics. This prevents the adhesive from oozing out at the edges and sticking to the paper it incloses. This also permits the easy withdrawal of the paper.

WILSON SNUB FOR FARMERS

Hughes Shows How Tillers of the Soil Were Ignored in Railroad Discussion.

CROP RAISERS FOOT BILL TO PAY FOR BROTHERHOOD DEAL.

Democratic Nominee Levelled a Body Blow at the Interests of Our Agricultural Communities When at the Behest of an Exclusive Group of Railroad Workers He Increased Their Pay Without Investigating the Justice of the Demand.

Charles E. Hughes, who left Lincoln for his second day's campaigning in Nebraska, told a crowd of farmers in his speech there that the Democratic Administration had ignored the agricultural interests of the country in urging the enactment of the Adamson law. The nominee in support of his contention, cited a telegram from President H. N. Pope of the Texas Farmers' Union to President Wilson requesting that the farmers be permitted to submit data in arbitration proceedings between the railroads and the brotherhoods. He said:

"I want to say in reference to rates that it seems to me the farmers of the country were very little considered the other day, when on the demand of the Administration the wages of a group of railroad workers were increased by law, in response to force. Somebody has got to pay the increased bills, and the farmers will know very quick who has to pay them.

"The farmers were not represented in this discussion, if you may call it that in this surrender.—I have here a copy of a telegram that was sent to the President by Mr. Pope, the president of the State Farmers' Union of Texas, which I shall read to you:

"We ask that you make no concessions or commitments that will in any manner cause an increase in freight rates on products produced or consumed on the farm. The men who pay the freight have an equity in this dispute, which neither the railroad trainmen nor the railroad managers have authority to represent. If it is your intention to personally dispose of the matter we ask that you postpone further consideration until a committee of farmers can prepare information and data to present their side of the case. If you conclude to settle by arbitration, then the organized farmers should have representation on any arbitration committee that may be formed to dispose of this question; for the men who pay should have representation as well as the men who receive it.

"We again urge that all questions involved be settled by arbitration, where all parties and all interests can be heard and the subject dealt with aside from haste and intimidation."

Asked to Abdicate Authority.
The crowd cheered when Mr. Hughes concluded reading the telegram.

"No regard was paid to that message," Mr. Hughes said. "The business men of the country, through the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, were at the same time and had for many weeks before been imploring the executive and leaders in congress for an immediate and prompt inquiry in order that the justice of this matter might be known. The farmers were not there except through the presence of the representatives of the people in congress, and those representatives were asked to abdicate their authority.

"I am in favor of everything that can reasonably be done for the promotion of agriculture. I am glad to note the work of the Agricultural Department. It will be continued with me, if I am entrusted with the power, to the utmost of efficiency under my administration.

A Body Blow Levelled.

"But it is idle to talk of interest in the farmer when you have action like this taken in congress overnight, against the protests of the farmer, and leveling a body blow at the interests of our agricultural communities."

Mr. Hughes again denied the declaration that a vote for him "meant a vote for war."

Mr. Wilson says the election of Mr. Hughes will mean war with Europe and war with Mexico. Why not chuck in Abyssinia and Patagonia for good measure? One is as likely as the other.

Now Ellis Parker Butler, author of "Pigs Is Pigs," has declared for Wilson. It's a great administration for pork all right.

Now that Mr. Hughes has left Missouri they're referring to it out there as the "I'm Shown" state.

A doormat leads a life of supreme peace, but it has to stand for an awful lot of stepping on.
